FAIRBANKS IN OLD-TIME FORM

Ovation At Phoenix Hill Republican Meeting.

Former Vice President Predicts G. O. P. Success—Hear Morrow.

With his old-time erectness and distinction of bearing Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, one-time Vice President of the United States, addressed a Republican gathering that filled the big hall at Phoenix Hill last night. As he entered the hall, shortly after 8 o'clock, he was given a rousing ovation, and this was repeated when he rose and began addressing the crowd.

The meeting was presided over by Captain B. Black, City Attorney of Louisville during the Grinstead administration. Besides Mr. Fairbanks, who addressed the gathering, were also present, Mr. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor, and Mr. W. H. Morrow, who entered the hall just before Mr. Fairbanks began to speak, was given a welcome by the hostess, Mrs. J. H. Morrow.

Mr. Fairbanks spoke at length on the protective tariff from the angles presented by the new conditions. "I," he said, "think that we are needed forever to establish the American policy, as Henry Clay called it, the European war has furnished it. That war has served to call attention to our dependence upon the world for certain elements of our material. But suppose the protective policy had not for a half century of Republican domination in national affairs been preparing this nation for the moment when it might have to stand alone industrially, suppose we had remained as the toes of protection would make us, a mere agricultural colony of Europe? What would have been our plight in the past eighteen months of European war? Instead of an individual blessing, mitigating the rigors of an experiment in partial free trade, it would have fallen upon our people like a blight, paralyzing whatever industry might feebly have arisen, and rendering us bankrupt.

"On the other hand, prepared as we have been, partially at least, for these emergencies, what opportunity this sudden change in the affairs of the world has opened to us, if we but heed the dictates of common sense and the admonitions of experience. We regret at this time only our failure in not more broadly applying the protective principle, so that today we might have a dye industry adequate chemical industry—above all a cross-ocean merchant marine operating under the American flag, which, if it existed today, would at once save us from every possibility of foreign complication, and open new pathways for American commerce to every neutral and nearly every belligerent port in the world.

"History has no parallel for the prosperity of the American people under the protective policy, measured either in the magnitude of that prosperity, or the degree of its diffusion. When, more than a half century ago, it was adopted as the policy of the nation, the business of the country was stagnated, its credit was at low ebb, its wealth and power insignificant compared with that of today. There have been three Democratic tariff in the last sixty years, and the result of each of them has been debt, disaster and depression. Mr. Fairbanks then went into statistical 'proofs' of this assertion. He laid emphasis on the general distribution of prosperity under a properly administered protective tariff. The Republican party," he declared, "offers no apology for its friendship for legitimate business enterprises and labor! * * * Frankly, and uncompromisingly the Republican party stands for the promotion of the material interests of the United States, knowing that no worthy civilization can be erected on the basis of a wage standard controlled by what is prevalent in lands where labor is paid more by chance called protection, or chance.

dustrial coast defenses. We are even more unprepared to resist commercial than military invasion. The weapon of cheapness, wielded by our impoverished commercial rivals, will be irresistible. Under a continuation of the Democratic tariffs there can be only one army mustered in this country, and that inevitably will be the great army of the unemployed.

"Military invasion is remotely possible; commercial invasion is deadly certain. We believe in adequate military preparedness, but to prepare for uncertainties and to prepare for certainties seems inconsistent. We are horrified by the distresses arising from war, but are they to be more dreaded by a nation than the despair and hunger that arise from industrial pauper? We should know what will happen. We have had experience under two succeeding Democratic tariff laws. There is one adequate national preparedness, and that is a restoration of the protective tariff.

New Lesson in Protection.

Mr. Fairbanks spoke at length on the protective tariff from the angles presented by the new conditions. JUDGE BIRKHEAD AND THE TAX PAYER.
ON LAST FRIDAY JUDGE BIRKHEAD ADMORNED THE OHIO CIRCUIT COURT, SO FAR AS HE WAS CONCERNED, AND UNHEARD OF THING, AND WENT OUT ON AN ELECTIONEERING EXPEDITION. JUDGE HENSON, OF HENDERSON, WAS APPOINTED BY THE GOVERNOR TO FINISH OUT THE TERM, FOR THE WEEK JUDGE BIRKHEAD WILL DRAW FROM THE STATE TREASURY $87.50. JUDGE HENSON WILL ALSO DRAW $87.50 OF THE DEAR TAX PAYER'S MONEY. THIS WOULD NOT BE SO NOTICEABLE IF IT WERE NOT FOR THE FACT THAT JUDGE BIRKHEAD HAS FOR YEARS POSED AS THE GREAT SAYER OF THE TAX PAYER'S MONEY. FROM HIS CIRCULARS TO THE "DEAR PEOPLE" ON THAT SUBJECT ONE WOULD HAVE THOUGHT HE LAY AWAKE AT NIGHT TRYING TO DEVISE SOME SCHEME TO SAVE MONEY TO THE TAX PAYER'S OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT. HE DRAWS $850. PER MONTH. THE $87.50 WHICH THE JUDGE WILL DRAW FOR THIS WEEK'S WORK, TRYING TO GET 18 YEARS SALARY AS JUDGE, AMOUNTING TO ABOUT $75,000, WILL EQUAL THE TAXES TO STATE AND COUNTY ON D. O. CO. FARMS, VALUED AT $1,000 EACH. THIS $87.50, PAID BY REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS ALIKE, TO THE "GOOD" JUDGE, FOR ELECTIONEERING, WOULD BUY SEVERAL LOADS OF STONE FOR ROADS. IT WOULD BUILD SEVERAL CILVERTS ON OUR BAD HIGHWAYS. EVERY TIME YOU MEET THE JUDGE OUT THIS WEEK, MR. VOTER, REMEMBER YOU ARE HELPING TO PAY HIM A LITTLE OVER $1.00 PER DAY TO PAT YOU ON THE BACK, AND BEG YOU FOR "CHAWIN TERRAUCKER."

INDEPENDENT PAPER OUT FOR MORROW

Paducah Sun Announces Its Support of the Prince of Kentucky Oratory.

The Sun knows that its monthly contemporary is not so stupid as to believe that the "Independent" is a newspaper guaranteeing or bodies its non-participation in affairs of the city, state or nation. Therefore its attempted assumption that the Sun has deserted its independence in asking a hearing for Edwin P. Morrow must be the product of chagrin at finding its own efforts to discredit Mr. Morrow, checked.

Independence is a state of being which permits of no pre-conceived allegiance to any cause that demands support whether it be right or wrong. Independence is justification for working at all times for the best interests of the people, regardless of clan or party hopes. It is independence that has prompted the Sun to support movements for the public good, no matter the political complexion of the persons who are sponsor for them, just as it is the lack of this independence which causes the News-Democrat to avoid assisting any ambitious effort, in or out of the community, if the effort isn't rolled, stamped and labelled with the party brand and approved by the party's agents.

The Sun has spoken for Mr. Morrow because it is absolutely sure that the Republican candidate is presenting with absolute candor and magnificent courage facts of vital concern to the people of Kentucky—facts that discredit the present administration—facts that make the path of the present Democratic office seekers a thorny one to travel—but nevertheless facts. He accuses representatives of the people of wasting the public funds, and breaking promises to the men who put them in office. He offers convincing proof—proof that the persons he accuses have permitted to stand, and anyone who would deny him: fully opportunity to bring his indictment and to abide by it, when he makes it a conviction, insults intelligence and deliberately prostitutes public welfare at a party's call.

Mr. Morrow has held up to the public gaze gross extravagance of Kentucky's administration officials. He has justly castigated a legislature which was acknowledged incompetent and faithless by its own kind though the same legislators have again been nominated for office. He has exposed a host of false promises that have been made, and he has planned up a list of 100 such promises, and has made it a point to call attention to the fact that the party which made them has failed to keep them.

ED. MORROW FAVORS MINERS

Like His Uncle W. O. Bradley He Is For Laborers.

Has Been the Wage Earner's Friend Since He Was a Boy.

Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican candidate for Governor, was born and raised among the miners of Eastern Kentucky. His father, the Hon. Z. T. Morrow, was an eloquent speaker and was always a friend of the mining and laboring people of the community in which he lived; was always in sympathy with their cause and always defended their interest.

He knew the mining and laboring people as only a man can know them who is one of them and lives among them. Mr. Morrow's uncle, Hon. Wm. O. Bradley, was one of the strongest champions that the laborer of Kentucky ever had. He made the laborers cause his cause. From the time of his earliest manhood when he first became able to take part in public discussions until the date of his death, he championed the cause of the man who toiled. He fought their fight. In the Kentucky Legislature, before various labor conventions, in the chair of Governor, and in the Senate of the United States, his voice was always eloquent in favor of the great laboring class of people who constitute the bulk of our population. The present candidate for Governor, Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, is the living embodiment of the strength and vigor and energy and integrity of his illustrious father and distinguished uncle. Like them he has always stood on the side of the laboring people. Wherever the interest of miners and other wage earners were at stake the voice of Edwin P. Morrow has always been raised in their behalf. He is a lawyer by profession and as such has been continuously retained as the attorney for the United Mine Workers of America in the community in which he lived. He has stood by the miners in their efforts to obtain a just and equitable compensation for the injuries they have received while at work in the mines, and has stood by the widows and orphans of the miners where the miners lost their lives while at work in the mines. He has defended them in many instances without pay whenever they have needed a champion and were unable to pay.

A few years ago there was a serious car shortage, it was Edwin P. Morrow in Eastern Kentucky who took up the question of getting the railroads to supply the cars needed in order that the mines might run and that the miners might have employment. Living as he does in a community so largely composed of miners and having been trained all his life by an illustrious father and a distinguished uncle, Edwin P. Morrow is perhaps the most thoroughly educated man in Kentucky in matters pertaining to the interest of labor and wage earners.

He is now candidate for Governor and he is making a manly fight, vigorous, aggressive fight for a fair system of taxation, for the enactment of laws favorable to the laboring people, for the repeal of such laws as are against the interest of the laborers and for a greater and better Kentucky. The laboring class of people are looking to him for support by the thousands. They know that he is an earnest, highly educated, red-blooded champion of their cause, and that a man with his ability and his integrity of character, and his experience in the cause of labor can be a great benefit to the laboring people of Kentucky as their Governor.

He is the greatest friend of the South. He is a man of a clearly defined and manly character. He is the laboring people's friend in the West, and the laboring people's friend in the East.

Interest in Edwin P. Morrow, and their intention to support him for Governor.

The fact that the present election in Kentucky comes on the eve of the presidential election adds a good deal of strength to Mr. Morrow's campaign. The miners and laboring people have felt the paucity of poverty brought on by the present administration and they are lining themselves up for a tremendous victory in favor of a return of Republican prosperity, in 1916.

At a recent gathering at one of the local mines in Ohio County it was ascertained that the average monthly net earning of a loader under the present administration has been about $20.00 per month; out of which he had to pay his house rent, grocery bill, doctor bill, and all other living expenses. This condition should not be permitted to exist and this fact is one of the strong reasons why the laboring people all over the State of Kentucky are turning to Edwin P. Morrow in the present campaign.

Another One On Hamlett.

When the State W. O. W. encampment was held at Dawson Springs last March, Barksdale Hamlett attended as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State. He put in three busy days, shaking hands with the boys from every part of the State and explaining to them the necessity of rotating himself from one office to another in Frankfort. When he went back to the capital he promptly made out his expense account for his trip to Dawson and filed it with the Auditor. Now our own Gabe Likens was also a candidate for the nomination for Secretary of State. Likewise First Assistant Auditor. He had paid his own good, hard earned money for railroad fare, and hotel bill, while at Dawson, and he thought Hamlett should do the same. So he called his attention to the account, telling Mr. Hamlett that he surely did not mean to ask the State to pay this bill. The matter was equal to the occasion and explained that he was down at Dawson to help the Graded School district about some school bonds which have already been voted and there was nothing Mr. Hamlett could do and he did nothing and said nothing to the school people while there in regard to the vote or the bonds. Will you vote for Hamlett?

Death of Mrs. Mariab A. Likens.

It is with a feeling of great sadness that we record the death of one of the county's most respected ladies. Mrs. Mariab A. Likens was born May 26, 1840 and died of diseases incident to old age Oct. 26, 1915, therefore she had reached the age of 75. Funeral services were held at Bethel by Rev. Creel.

Mrs. Likens was a Miss York before her marriage to Mr. J. H. Likens in 1859. Her husband preceded her in death four years.

She was a member of the Baptist church for fifty years and at the time of her death her membership was with the Concord church.

Mrs. Likens lived with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Black since the death of her husband. She leaves surviving her four children, Mr. M. T. Likens, of Hartford, G. H. Likens, of Frankfort; Mrs. Frank Black, of Hartford and Mrs. Bernard Felix, of Rome, Ky., and also a grandson, Frank H. Likens who was very dear to her as his father, Mr. D. W. Likens, her son, and mother are dead.

James Burden Dead.

Mr. James Burden, Fordsville's town marshal, died very suddenly last Friday morning. He had gone to the Wilson Co.'s store to buy some groceries and while there he was attacked with heart failure and died in a few seconds. He had been in failing health for several months, suffering from dropsy and other complications.

After funeral services conducted by Rev. J. H. Callbert, at the Baptist church, his remains were interred in the Jackson burying ground.

James Burden was a wife and mother of several children.

Weevil Moves Rapidly.

Under normal conditions the boll weevil advances into new territory at the rate of about 50 miles each year, but during a period of only two weeks during the present season there was an advance of about 100 miles. This movement carried the insect into Georgia for the first time, and 25 counties in that state became infested. Several counties in Florida have been infested for several years, but eight additional ones became infested by the same movement. Twenty additional counties in Alabama were infested. All of this spread took place between the 15th and 31st of August.

There were several conditions, according to the entomologists of the department, which contributed to this unusual dispersion. One of them was the drought in Alabama and Mississippi, which caused the plants to cease fruiting and deprived the weevils of the squares upon which they prefer to feed. The more important condition, however, was a series of very high winds which began on August 15 and blew continuously for several days toward the northeast. The weevils were thus carried much farther than they would have gone by natural flight or even by the aid of ordinary winds.

The department has placed all available forces at work to assist the farmers in the territory that has just become infested. Most of the cotton is now open and this will allow an unusually early picking so that the fall broods of the weevil can be destroyed by uprooting and burning the plant or burning them where necessary. The department strongly urges the burning of the plants where ever this can be promptly done, the larvae thereby placed in the soil is of very great importance. The state is now cooperating with the agents of the department, and a very active effort will be made to reduce the number of weevils to the extent that will allow an approximately normal crop to be produced next season.

Another feature of this boll-weevil problem which is attracting considerable attention is the damage that is being done in Texas this season. There is a more or less general impression in the Eastern part of the cotton belt that the boll weevil has died out in the State of Texas, but the investigations of the department show that the abundance of the insect in that section depends on climatic condition. During the present season these conditions have been extremely favorable, with the result that the insect has been as abundant as at any time since it invaded the State. The lesson to be drawn from this fact is that the planters in the eastern part of the cotton belt must make a strenuous fight and should realize that since the boll weevil has not died out either in Texas or Mexico, it is not likely to do so in any other region that may become invaded. They should not just their systems of farming to boll-weevil conditions without doing.

Nerves and Musk. "Nerve" victims are always fond of musk," says Doctor Platt. "Sometimes it is disguised by a combination of odors and another name, but it's musk just the same. It's the most powerful of any of the scents used for controlling nervous diseases. Attar of roses is also used successfully. Ambergris, upon which most perfumes are founded, is coming to be an essential in every drug laboratory."

LANDING OF ALLIES ON GALLIPOLI PENINSULA

Procession of boats filled with allied expeditionary troops passing between the transports on their way towards Gallipoli peninsula. They are being towed by tugboats from the battleships. Just a few moments after this picture was taken a hidden land battery on the shore opened fire on the boats and succeeded in sinking one of them, though the men were rescued. Below, troops are landing.

BURSTING SHELLS CAUGHT BY CAMERA

This remarkable photograph, one of the London "Globe" wire pictures, was taken "somewhere in France," and shows three shells bursting over a house.

RUSSIAN JOAN OF ARC

Mme. Kokovtzeva, recently awarded the Cross of St. George for bravery, is the colonel commanding the Sixth Cossack regiment. She has been twice wounded in battle.

The ideal! Many are the changes that have been rung on the stolen-umbrella joke, and a fresh one has been printed in the Tattler.

On the notice board in an Ipswich reading room there recently appeared the following appeal: "Will the gentleman who took a horn-handled umbrella from the stand on Wednesday kindly return it to the librarian? Some one wrote beneath in pencil: 'Certainly not; weather still unsettled.'"

WILL FILL A WANT!

Since the suspension of the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal, there has been quite a demand for a weekly Kentucky newspaper that gives all the more important state news, as well as the general news, crisp editorials, good stories, timely cartoons and illustrations.

There is no such excellent paper as the—

Twice-a-Week
Owensboro Messenger
(Edited by Fred Woodson)

It comes every Wednesday and Saturday, (16 pages a week or more), and is up-to-date in every regard.

HOTEL POWHATAN WASHINGTON D.C.

HOTEL OF AMERICAN IDEALS

In a city where good hotels abound, the Powhatan heads the list. It is first in the hearts of its countrymen.

The Powhatan is refined, exclusive, and restful. Its excellent location on Pennsylvania Avenue, 18th and 19th Streets, makes it a desirable headquarters for social, business, and pleasure parties. The hotel is especially attractive to a discriminating public.

The Powhatan affords the most complete and convenient facilities for State, War, and Navy Departments, as well as for all other government departments. It is the only hotel in Washington that is a discriminating public.

The Powhatan offers rooms with detached bath at $1.50, $2.00 and up. Rooms with private bath, $3.50, $4.00 and up. Write for booklet with map.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Republican party in Kentucky in convention assembled adopts the following platform:

(1) We approve the policies of the National Republican party in providing for the defenses of our coasts against foreign invasion, and the protection of American industry against the pauper labor of foreign countries without imposing unnecessary or unjust burdens upon the consumer. We favor the nomination for the Presidency of a candidate who is in accord with those policies, and is abreast of the spirit of progress required by ever changing condition.

(2) We condemn the inefficiency of the administration at Washington, its inadequate tariff law and its tax in times of peace, which have resulted in the closing of factories, the stagnation of business and the enforced idleness of millions of workmen.

We demand the redistricting of Kentucky in legislative, senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, which shall give equal representation and equal voting power to every citizen of every district, in conformity with the plain requirements of the Constitution, and not as at present, in flagrant violation thereof.

(3) We demand the repeal of the present infamous primary law formed for the purpose of preventing freedom of choice to the voter, and favor the enactment of a law which shall permit party nominations for judicial offices without regard to the party affiliation of the candidates so that the judiciary may be chosen on non-partisan grounds, and the continuance in office of judicial public servants may be determined by no other qualification than that of fitness.

We favor amendment to State laws permitting and encouraging joint nominations of the same candidate by the different parties. We demand the repeal of the law providing for registration certificates imposed upon the State by the Democratic party for immoral political purposes, whereby votes in Kentucky have become negotiable instruments, passing by delivery.

(4) We demand that the public schools of the State shall be taken and kept entirely out of politics, and that the interests and welfare of the children shall have first consideration in all public school matters. We call for better schools and schoolhouses, for longer school terms in the country and better pay for the teachers.

We also favor extending the act of the State to its institutions for higher education.

(5) There shall be complete public control over the expenditure of money for political campaign, and no law shall be passed which shall authorize any candidate or campaign manager to collect sums of money collected for political purposes.

(6) We demand the enactment of a law providing for bipartisan control of the State Board of Education, and for the abolition of the present Board of Education, and we favor the enactment of a law providing for the election of a bipartisan Board of Education, and we favor the enactment of a law providing for the election of a bipartisan Board of Education.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.
